

SUCK ON THIS

Bar manager Ben Fitzgerald of the Cargo Bar answers a few mX questions and reveals one of his favourite cocktails.

Previous work?
Fringe Bar

Favourite drink?
At the moment anything old-fashion style. Depending what time, but a negroni always sits right.

Where can we find you on a day off?

It is rare that I do have a day off, but you would normally find me watching a movie.

Favourite bar?

Well I only just recently visited Rambutan, which is awesome. Great staff with a great cocktail list. I can definitely see myself spending a lot of time chatting with the guys down there.

Cocktail suggestion:

It all depends on the person and the timing. If summer ever came upon us, maybe a nice bramble. Plymoth Gin, Freshly screwed lemon juice & Creme de mure

Have you created a cocktail? If so, tell us about it?

A new cocktail creation of mine is the colour of a blushing Geisha – Appleton's rum, mint, fresh citrus, Dambuie & apple juice. This will feature in our new cocktail menu released in March.
