CARGO REBIRTH PARTY

Cargo Bar, King St Wharf

This popular watering hole proved the value of daylight saving at its “rebirth” party on Thursday night.

Great weather attracted plenty of loyal members and a smattering of celebs, including Laura Csortan, Zoe Naylor, Anthony Minichiello and a few token Big Brother contestants.

The event definitely marked the beginning of the festive season. There were prematurely bronzed bodies on show, potent cocktails, great music and even a fireworks display.

Customers expecting drastic renovations could discern only two minor changes to the roof and bar and two small new stages to warrant the excuse for a rebirth party.
